

- 2x Intro
 - Organ and drums starts alone, and solo guitar comes in together with bass and backing guitars. Drummer plays 4th notes on the hi-hat
- 2x Verse / Part A
 - Backing continues with same intensity as intro, but vocals instead of solo guitar. Chords are G and C (I think)
- 1x Part B (finger picking)
 - Guitar changes to a more finger picking type of playing instead of strumming, as well as the chords changes with some added backing vocals. I think it is some kind of A minor chords, but I have yet to figure it out.
- 2x Chorus
 - The change in lyrics implies a chorus, even though it is identical to verse.
- 1x Guitar solo:
 - Creamy and smooth guitar solo, melodical.
- 1x Part B
 - Same as before
- Outro/Gospel thingy part
 - Drummer changes to ride, and some kind of choir/many voices at once hums a repeating melody line, as the song goes to an end.

Organ seems to follow the guitar throughout the song. Don't know what to say about the bass, except that it is playing around the chords in the song.
